

London Internship 2023

Courtney Bromby, Giovanni Hollis,
Najiyah Raynor & Emma Stegmann

Courtney Bromby

Top Learning Points

- Emerging Risks
- Insurance Market Cycles
- Similarities & differences between the London & Bermuda markets

BFIS

Highs & Lows

- Highly interactive
- Experiencing London
- Hearing from a variety of business areas & specialty lines
- Felt rushed at times when there were lots of speakers
- Overload by the end of week 2

Giovanni Hollis

Key Takeaways

- Learnt more about how the (re)insurance industry fits my personality
- Insight into the LoB I had no idea about before (e.g terror, financial institutions, cyber, contingency)
- Insight into work culture and work/life balance in London and I could see myself there

Recommendation

- Lloyds visit on a busier day

Highs of the Internship

- Real life examples and being able to apply knowledge
- Having life and career conversations with the companies and meeting them outside of work
- Being able to meet their employees our age and hearing about their journey into the industry
- Fidelis Iron Maiden concert
- Hearing companies' origin and growth stories
- Being able to hear from employees along the entire hierarchy
- Learning about company's IT/digital infrastructures

Najiyah Raynor

Key Takeaways

- Compared the variances and combinations of different company cultures, values, and goals to help sharpen my career aspirations.
- Learned the intricacies of Specialty lines (Contingency, Cargo, Political Risk, etc.) of underwriting.
- Gained a deeper understanding of the broad process of reinsurance from different company perspectives.
- Great networking opportunity, from C-suite executives to apprentices!

Recommendations

- Have a more interactive experience through some form of knowledge application.
- Take interns through the processes presenters undertake via illustrating case studies, showing submissions, pricing & CAT softwares, etc.

BFIS

Highlights of the Internship

- Connecting with young brokers from Lockton Re and gaining a deeper understanding of why broking is my ideal career path, and the type of firm I am looking to join.
- Golf simulator at Fidelis.
- Connecting with Mosaic and being hosted for dinner at Sky Garden.
- Networking opportunities from which I gained meaningful relationships.
- Being blessed to share a unique experience with fellow aspiring Bermudian professionals.
- Being able to spend part of the weekend with my bestfriend and my goddaughter.
- Change of scenery.

Emma Stegmann

Key Takeaways

- The economics behind the (Re)insurance market
  - Emerging risks
  - Capital
  - Varying approaches to the evolving risk environment
- Understanding the variety of appealing positions across the many LOBs
- The importance of maintaining relationships and your personal brand

Notable Points

- Advancing towards my aspiration of working in the London market
- Meeting such a wide variety of individuals and expanding my network
- Returning to London and seeing friends
- Some very long days that blended into the evenings
- Maintaining my professional “social battery”

Thank
You!

